Amarcord

Thursday, January 2 at 7:15pm | 1973 | 2h 3m | 35mm | In Italian with English subtitles

Directed by: Federico Fellini

Featuring: Magali Noël, Bruno Zanin, Pupella Maggio

Federico Fellini returned to the provincial landscape of his childhood with this carnivalesque reminiscence, rendering its daily life as a circus of social rituals, adolescent desires, and political subterfuge. Sketching a gallery of comic caricatures, Fellini affectionately evokes a vanished world haloed with the glow of memory, even as he satirizes fascism.

A Fish Called Wanda

Monday, January 6 at 7:00pm | 1988 | 1h 48m | 35mm

Directed by: Charles Crichton, John Cleese

Featuring: John Cleese, Jamie Lee Curtis, Kevin Kline, Michael Palin

In 1988, John Cleese, former Python and the mastermind behind Fawlty Towers, teamed up with the veteran Ealing Comedy director Charles Crichton (The Lavender Hill Mob) to produce another classic of British comedy. Cleese plays a weak-willed barrister who finds himself embroiled with a quartet of ill-matched jewel thieves.

Fargo

Thursday, January 23 at 7:00pm | 1996 | 1h 38m | DCP

Directed by: Joel & Ethan Coen

Featuring: Frances McDormand, William H. Macy, Steve Buscemi

The Coen Brothers and star Frances McDormand became household names with the release of this darkly comic film noir.

Jerry Lundegaard (William H. Macy) is a car salesman in Minneapolis who has gotten himself into debt and is so desperate for money that he hires two thugs to kidnap his own wife in a ransom scheme.

Journey to Italy

Monday, January 27 at 7:00pm | 1954 | 1h 37m | DCP

In Italian and English with English subtitles

Directed by: Roberto Rossellini

Featuring: Ingrid Bergman, George Sanders

Among the most influential films of the postwar era, Roberto Rossellini's Journey to Italy charts the declining marriage of a couple from England (Ingrid Bergman and George Sanders) on a trip in the countryside near Naples. More than just the anatomy of a relationship, Rossellini's masterpiece is a heartrending work of emotion and spirituality.

Barry Lyndon

Monday, February 3 at 7:00pm | 1975 | 3h 5m | 35mm

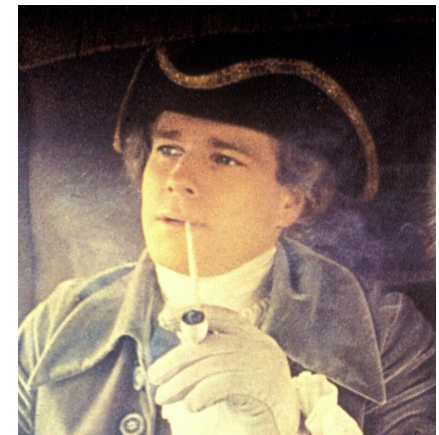

Directed by: Stanley Kubrick

Featuring: Ryan O'Neal, Marisa Berenson

Stanley Kubrick bent the conventions of the historical drama to his own will in this dazzling vision of a pitiless aristocracy, adapted from a novel by William Makepeace Thackeray.

In picaresque detail, Barry Lyndon chronicles the adventures of an incorrigible trickster whose opportunism takes him from an Irish farm to the battlefields of the Seven Years' War and the parlors of high society.

Intro seminar available; see p11 for more.

Notting Hill

Thursday, February 13 at 7:00pm | 1999 | 2h 4m | 35mm
 Directed by: Roger Michell
 Featuring: Julia Roberts, Hugh Grant, Rhys Ifans

Anna Scott (Julia Roberts) is the world's most famous movie star. William Thacker (Hugh Grant) owns a travel bookstore in the quaint neighborhood of Notting Hill.

When their paths cross, the couple comes to face the ultimate question: can two people fall in love with the whole world watching?

Point Break

Monday, February 17 at 7:00pm | 1991 | 2h 2m | 35mm
 Directed by: Kathryn Bigelow
 Featuring: Patrick Swayze, Keanu Reeves, Lori Petty, Gary Busey

Our annual President's Day screening!

FBI agent Johnny Utah (Keanu Reeves) goes undercover to infiltrate a cadre of Southern California surfers suspected of robbing banks. But things get complicated when the group's philosophizing leader Bodhi (Patrick Swayze) puts Utah under his charismatic spell, in one of the greatest action extravaganzas of the '90s.

Buck and the Preacher

Thursday, February 27 at 7:00pm | 1972 | 1h 42m | DCP
 Directed by: Sidney Poitier
 Featuring: Sidney Poitier, Harry Belafonte, Ruby Dee

With his rousing directorial debut, Sidney Poitier, alongside actor-producer Harry Belafonte, helped rewrite the history of the Western, bringing Black heroes to a genre in which they had always been sorely underrepresented.

This combination of boisterous buddy comedy and blistering, Black Power-era political fury follows a taciturn wagon master and a pistol-packing "preacher" who join forces in order to take on white bounty hunters.

HUNTINGTON

Pariah

Monday, January 13 at 7:00pm | 2011 | 1h 26m | DCP
 Directed by: Dee Rees
 Featuring: Adepero Oduye, Pernell Walker, Aasha Davis

Featuring a post-screening discussion with guests of The Huntington's production of The Grove! The path to living as one's authentic self is paved with trials and tribulations in this revelatory, assured feature debut by Dee Rees—the all-too-rare coming-of-age tale honestly representing the experiences of queer Black women.

Queering the Screen

Our new signature program in partnership with: THEATER OFFENSIVE

Tangerine

Wednesday, February 26 at 7:00pm | 2015 | 1h 28m | DCP
 Directed by: Sean Baker

The stirring new film by multi-award-winning German auteur Andreas Dresen featuring Babylon Berlin star Liv Lisa Fries in an all-consuming performance. In the summer of 1942 in Berlin, a pregnant woman's life changes when she and her partner get involved in the anti-Nazi resistance.

CLASSES

Journalism on Screen

Tuesdays, January 14–February 18 at 10:00am–1:00pm
Instructor: Judi Freeman

We imagine the foreign correspondent—from Dorothy Thompson to Edward R. Murrow—as the daring, fearless, relentless journalist dashing around the globe. Join us as we take a look at the changing perception of the foreign correspondent in film as we ask big questions about journalism at a moment when the profession is under fire, and explore cinematic image vs. reality about the field in 2025.

The Fantastic Mr. Anderson

Wednesdays, January 15–February 12 at 6:30–9:30pm
Instructor: Andre Puca

Over the past 30 years, Wes Anderson has cemented his place among the pantheon of celebrated auteurs in American cinema. In this class, we will watch and examine five of Anderson's most iconic films with an eye toward identifying how that personality manifests through his signature style, and ultimately, elucidate something like a unifying vision that ties his films together thematically.

SEMINAR

The Fifth Element

Wednesday, January 22 at 6:15pm
Instructor: Ingrid Stobbe

In this seminar, we will discuss the world during The Fifth Element's release, as well as its futuristic context in the world of today. How did Luc Besson create a foundation of such core components within the body of an entertaining sci-fi action film that could stand the test of time to resonate all of these years later?

Barry Lyndon

Monday, February 3 at 6:15pm
Instructor: Barry Marshall

In this intro seminar, learn about the years-long production of this movie and how it started as something else entirely, how Stanley Kubrick managed to portray a nineteenth-century world and protagonist looking for that "best of all possible worlds," and why this is one of the most beautiful movies ever made.

Boston Open Screen

Tuesdays, January 14 & February 11 at 7:00pm

Open Screen is Boston's one and only open mic night for filmmakers! Whether you sold your home to finance your 35mm feature, or you made it last night in your parent's basement—if your movie (or part thereof) is under 10 minutes, we'll screen it.

ICONS

BLACK HISTORY IN HOLLYWOOD

February 2024 Series

Since the early days of Hollywood, Black actors have challenged perceptions and redefined expectations through powerful performances on the big screen.

This February, we're celebrating over 70 years of iconic Black stars in their most memorable and celebrated roles, from Dorothy Dandridge's history-making achievement in Carmen Jones, to Sidney Poitier's legendary performance as Virgil Tibbs in In the Heat of the Night, and Daniel Kaluuya's award-winning portrayal in Judas and the Black Messiah. By taking a closer look at these icons, we can reflect on how the industry has changed for Black artists over its first century, and envision where it will go from here.

Carmen Jones

Sunday, February 2 at 2:00pm

Dorothy Dandridge, whose vibrant performance resulted in the first Oscar nomination for a Black actress in a leading role, stars as the beautiful temptress Carmen Jones who ensnares a GI and a prizefighter in her web.

Super Fly (1972) (in 35mm)

Thursday, February 6 at 7:00pm

One of the most enduring streetwise films of its era, due to the dynamic central performance of Ron O'Neal, the sizzling score by Curtis Mayfield, and the gritty direction of the late Gordon Parks, Jr.

In the Heat of the Night

Sunday, February 9 at 2:00pm

In Norman Jewison's Oscar-winning milestone, a visiting big-city detective (Sidney Poitier) teams up with a local police chief (Oscar winner Rod Steiger) after the murder of an industrialist.

Glory

Sunday, February 16 at 2:00pm

The heart-stopping story of the first Black regiment to fight for the North in the Civil War, starring Denzel Washington in his first Oscar-winning role.

Judas and the Black Messiah

Wednesday, February 19 at 7:00pm

An FBI informant (Lakeith Stanfield) infiltrates the Illinois Black Panther Party and is tasked with keeping tabs on their charismatic leader, Chairman Fred Hampton (Daniel Kaluuya).

Sister Act

Sunday, February 23 at 2:00pm

Whoopi Goldberg stars as a low-rent lounge singer forced to hide out from the mob in the last place on Earth anyone would look for her—a convent.

CARY GRANT

THE MAN FROM DREAM CITY

February 2024 Series

Archie Leach of Bristol, England, rose from his humble, impoverished origins to become Cary Grant of Hollywood, or—as film critic Pauline Kael dubbed him—“the man from dream city.” One of the most debonair leading men of the 20th century, Grant’s decades-long career spanned genres and allowed him to showcase his peerless talents for physical comedy, romance, and suspense. This February, the Coolidge is pleased to offer a sampling of four films featuring Grant at his finest.

His Girl Friday

Tuesday, February 4 at 7:00pm

One of the fastest, funniest, and most quotable films ever made, His Girl Friday stars Rosalind Russell as reporter Hildy Johnson, matched in force only by her conniving but charismatic editor and ex-husband, Walter Burns (Grant)—who dangles the chance for her to scoop a big story.

An Affair to Remember

Wednesday, February 12 at 7:00pm

Nora Ephron’s hit rom-com Sleepless in Seattle introduced a new generation of fans to this classic weepie, starring Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr. After a whirlwind romance aboard a cruise ship, Nicky (Grant) and Terry (Deborah Kerr) make a plan to meet six months later on top of the Empire State Building. However, an unfortunate accident keeps Terry from the reunion.

Holiday (to be confirmed)

Tuesday, February 18 at 7:00pm

Two years before their The Philadelphia Story collaboration, Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant, and George Cukor brought their timeless talents to this delectable slice of rom-com perfection. Grant is at his charismatic best as an acrobatically inclined free spirit who literally tumbles into the lives of his fiancée’s aristocratic family—setting up a clash of values with her staid father while firing up the rebellious imagination of her brash, black-sheep sister (Hepburn).

Notorious

Tuesday, February 25 at 7:00pm

With this twisted love story, Alfred Hitchcock summoned darker shades of suspense and passion by casting two of Hollywood’s most beloved stars starkly against type. Ingrid Bergman plays Alicia, an alluring woman with a checkered past recruited by Devlin (Grant), a suave, mysterious intelligence agent, to spy for the U.S. Only after she has fallen for Devlin does she learn that her mission is to seduce a Nazi industrialist (Claude Rains) hiding out in South America.
