9 to 5

Thursday, May 1 at 7:00pm | 1980 | 1h 49m | DCP

Directed by: Colin Higgins

Featuring: Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin, Dolly Parton

In this witty, satirical farce, three office coworkers live every woman worker's dream after discovering they share the same resentment towards their egotistical, sexist boss (Dabney Coleman) and get the unexpected chance to take revenge.

The Lord of the Rings Trilogy

Sunday, May 4 at 11:00am | 2001-2003 | 12h 45m | 35mm

Directed by: Peter Jackson

Featuring: Elijah Wood, Viggo Mortensen, Ian McKellen, Sean Astin

Join us for this special marathon screening of Peter Jackson's epic, Academy Award-winning The Lord of the Rings trilogy, all in 35mm! We will present the extended cuts of the first two films and the theatrical cut of the third.

Daisies*

Monday, May 5 at 7:00pm | 1966 | 1h 15m | DCP

In Czech with English subtitles

Directed by: Vera Chytilová

Featuring: Ivana Karbanová, Jitka Cerhová

A pair of hedonistic young women embark on a gleefully debauched odyssey of gluttony, giddy destruction, and antipatriarchal resistance in this defiant provocation of the Czechoslovak New Wave.

The Big Chill

Thursday, May 15 at 7:00pm | 1983 | 1h 45m | 35mm

Directed by: Lawrence Kasdan

Featuring: Tom Berenger, Glenn Close, Jeff Goldblum, Kevin Kline, Mary Kay Place

After the death of their friend, a group of thirtysomethings reunite for his funeral and reminisce about their shared past as children of the '60s and confronting the uncertainty of their lives as adults of the '80s.

Picnic at Hanging Rock*

Monday, May 19 at 7:00pm | 1975 | 1h 55m | DCP

Directed by: Peter Weir

Featuring: Rachel Roberts, Anne-Louise Lambert, Vivean Gray

This sensual and striking chronicle of a disappearance and its aftermath put director Peter Weir on the map and helped usher in a new era of Australian cinema.

The Heartbreak Kid

Monday, May 26 at 7:00pm | 1972 | 1h 46m | DCP

Directed by: Elaine May

Featuring: Charles Grodin, Cybill Shepherd, Jeannie Berlin

In Elaine May's classic dark rom-com, a shallow sporting goods salesman (Charles Grodin) on his Miami Beach honeymoon catches sight of a vacationing college beauty (Cybill Shepherd) and blows up his marriage to pursue her.

Maurice

Thursday, June 5 at 7:00pm | 1987 | 2h 20m | DCP

Directed by: James Ivory

Featuring: James Wilby, Hugh Grant, Rupert Graves

Merchant-Ivory's sumptuously romantic adaptation of the E. M. Forster novel is a heart-racing story of coming to terms with one's sexuality and identity in the face of disapproval and misunderstanding.

Thelma & Louise*

Monday, June 9 at 7:00pm | 1991 | 2h 10m | DCP

Directed by: Ridley Scott

Featuring: Susan Sarandon, Geena Davis

This pop culture landmark rewrote the rules of the road movie, telling the story of two best friends who find themselves transformed into accidental fugitives during a weekend getaway gone wrong.

The Long Goodbye*

Thursday, June 19 at 7:00pm | 1973 | 1h 52m | DCP

Directed by: Robert Altman

Featuring: Elliott Gould, Nina van Pallandt, Sterling Hayden

Elliott Gould gives one of his best performances as a quirky, mischievous Philip Marlowe in Robert Altman's fascinating and original send-up of Raymond Chandler's classic detective story.

*Intro seminar available; see p15.

Queering the Screen

Our new signature program in partnership with: THE THEATER OFFENSIVE

Happy Together

Tuesday, May 20 at 7:00pm | 1997 | 1h 36m | DCP | In Cantonese with English subtitles

Directed by: Wong Kar Wai

Featuring: Leslie Cheung, Tony Leung Chiu Wai, Chen Chang

After the screening, join us for a panel discussion with guests from The Theater Offensive! Wong Kar Wai's emotionally raw, lushly stylized portrait of a relationship in breakdown follows a couple traveling through Argentina and locked in a turbulent cycle of infatuation and destructive jealousy as they break up, make up, and fall apart again and again.

National Theatre Live

A Streetcar Named Desire

Wednesday, June 18 at 7:00pm | 2014 | 3h | DCP

Directed by: Benedict Andrews

Featuring: Gillian Anderson, Vanessa Kirby, Ben Foster

Gillian Anderson (Sex Education), Vanessa Kirby (The Crown), and Ben Foster (Lone Survivor) lead the cast in Tennessee Williams's timeless masterpiece, returning to cinemas.

Stage & Screen

Our signature program in partnership with:

Summertime

Tuesday, May 6 at 7:00pm | 1955 | 1h 40m | DCP

Directed by: David Lean

Featuring: Katharine Hepburn, Rossano Brazzi, Darren McGavin

Featuring a post-screening discussion with guests of The Huntington's production of The Light in the Piazza! With this sublimely bittersweet tale of romantic longing, director David Lean left behind the British soundstage to capture the sun-splashed glory of Venice at the height of summer in radiant Technicolor.

A new series celebrating the rich history of documentary filmmaking in New England and its influence on the genre as a whole in partnership with:

LEGACY
SCREENINGS

Program 3

Wednesday, May 14 at 7:00pm | 1970-1977 | 1h 35m | DCP

Directed by: Lianne Brandon, Miriam Weinstein, Joyce Chopra

A program of five short documentaries from women filmmakers in the 1970s, including Sometimes I Wonder Who I Am and Betty Tells Her Story from Lianne Brandon; Call Me Mama from Miriam Weinstein; and Clorae and Albie and Joyce at 34 from Joyce Chopra.

Midsommar

Thursday, May 1 at 9:30pm | 2019 | 2h 28m | DCP

Directed by: Ari Aster

Featuring: Florence Pugh, Will Poulter, Jack Reynor

From visionary director Ari Aster (Hereditary) comes an unforgettable, dread-soaked fairy tale that is magical and terrifying in equal measure, as a young couple must confront not only outside evil, but deep-seated emotional questions about their love, dedication, and trust in one other.

While on vacation in a Nordic paradise, a couple must face long-held secrets when the ostensibly kind townspeople reveal themselves to be determined to preserve their bloodline.

Vampire Hunter D

Thursday, May 15 at 9:30pm | 1985 | 1h 20m | DCP

In Japanese with English subtitles

Directed by: Toyoo Ashida

Featuring: Kaneto Shiozawa, Michie Tomizawa

For 10,000 years, Count Magnus Lee has walked the night, sustained by an unholy thirst for blood and an unending lust for human women. But when he tastes Doris Lang, the Count knows he has found the woman he intends to claim as his next bride. But as the daughter of a werewolf hunter, will Doris ever be willing to step into the thrall of evil, or will she look to the vampire hunter known as D for protection against it?

Wet Hot American Summer

Thursday, May 29 at 9:30pm | 2001 | 1h 37m | 35mm

Directed by: David Wain

Featuring: Janeane Garofalo, David Hyde Pierce, Molly Shannon, Paul Rudd, Michael Ian Black, Michael Showalter

It's the last day of Camp Firewood's season, but there's still time for the big talent show, a little romance... and for everyone to be wiped out by the piece of NASA's Skylab that's hurtling toward Earth.

Stella and The State brainchild David Wain directs an ensemble cast in this loving satire of camp life, making you pine for those bygone summer days of first kisses, talent shows, and training montages.

Josie and the Pussycats

Coolidge at the Speedway

Wednesday, May 21 at sunset | 2001 | 1h 39m | DCP

Directed by: Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan

Featuring: Rachael Leigh Cook, Tara Reid, Rosario Dawson

Our series of outdoor screenings at the Charles River Speedway in Brighton returns this year, kicking off with this early aughts classic about a girl group that finds themselves in the middle of a conspiracy to deliver subliminal messages through pop.

Friday the 13th in the Rocky Woods

Coolidge After Midnight in the Rocky Woods

Friday, June 13 at 9:00pm | 1980 & 2009 | 3h 13m | DCP

We're back in the Rocky Woods for a double-feature presentation of the original 1980 Friday the 13th and the 2009 remake! Grab a blanket and sit under the stars with us as we brave Camp Crystal Lake together.

Good Burger

Coolidge at the Speedway

Wednesday, June 18 at sunset | 1997 | 1h 43m | DCP

Directed by: Brian Robbins

Featuring: Kel Mitchell, Kenan Thompson, Sinbad

A dim-witted teenager and his new coworker try to save the old burger joint they work for from failing after the opening of a brand new burger restaurant across the street, which is planning to put them out of business.

After each screening, join us for an afterparty in our Education & Community Engagement Center!

10 Things I Hate About You

Thursday, May 22 at 7:00pm | 1999 | 1h 37m | DCP

Directed by: Gil Junger

Featuring: Heath Ledger, Julia Stiles, Joseph Gordon-Levitt

From the golden age of modern Shakespeare retellings, 10 Things I Hate About You brings together the likes of Heath Ledger, Julia Stiles, and Joseph Gordon-Levitt to ask if ten reasons to hate someone can keep you from loving them.

National Treasure

Thursday, June 26 at 7:00pm | 2004 | 2h 11m | DCP

Directed by: Jon Turteltaub

Featuring: Nicolas Cage, Diane Kruger, Sean Bean

Nicolas Cage stars as an obsessive historian who discovers he must steal the Declaration of Independence to prevent it—and a key clue to a mysterious treasure—from falling into the hands of a ruthless enemy.

The Sounds of Silents®

The Mark of Zorro

Tuesday, May 13 at 7:00pm | 1920 | 1h 19m | DCP

Directed by: Fred Niblo

Featuring: Douglas Fairbanks, Marguerite De La Motte, Noah Beery

Featuring live piano accompaniment by Jeff Rapsis! 1800s Spanish California is the setting in which Douglas Fairbanks creates the prototype movie action-adventure hero.

Don Q, Son of Zorro

Tuesday, June 17 at 7:00pm | 1925 | 1h 51m | DCP

Directed by: Donald Crisp

Featuring: Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Astor, Donald Crisp

Featuring live piano accompaniment by Jeff Rapsis! In this sequel, Zorro crosses swords with a vicious member of the Queen's Guard and steals the affection of a young heiress, but must fake his own death to save his name and plot his vengeance.

CLASSES

Queer Cinema History

Mondays, June 16–July 14 at 6:15–9:15pm

Instructor: Kyle Stevens

Running in tandem with our "Queer Cinema History" repertory series! If you were already planning to come to those screenings, sign up for this class for added context and discussion.

LGBTQ+ representation in movies has rapidly increased in recent years, but queer characters are as old as cinema itself! Through this five-week course, you'll become familiar with the history of on-screen "deviant" sexualities and gender non-conforming characters. We'll enjoy five feature classics on the big screen, with rich discussions before and after to contextualize and understand their importance.

Boston Open Screen

Tuesdays, May 13 & June 17 at 7:00pm

Open Screen is Boston's one and only open mic night for filmmakers! Whether you sold your home to finance your 35mm feature, or you made it last night in your parent's basement—if your movie (or part thereof) is under 10 minutes, we'll screen it.

SEMINARS

Daisies

Monday, May 5 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Alex Kittle

This seminar will cover the film's production history and reception, Vera Chytilova and co-writer Ester Krumbachová's careers, and how the film's playfully rebellious messaging navigated a regulated political system.

Picnic at Hanging Rock

Monday, May 19 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Ingrid Stobbe

This stunning film, set in Australia amidst a time of turmoil, explores the disappearance of three young girls and a teacher on a trip in the early 1900s. In this seminar, learn how Peter Weir's story of navigating difficult circumstances refuses resolution and captures the current mood of our time.

Thelma & Louise

Monday, June 9 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Abbie DeCamp

This seminar will explore female criminality in Thelma & Louise through a feminist lens. What makes these good girls go bad? And how do they respond to a system that won't protect them from violence?

The Long Goodbye

Thursday, June 19 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Vernon Shetley

This seminar will place The Long Goodbye within the film noir tradition and the context of 1970s New Hollywood, exploring the reasons behind its initial failure at the box office and its subsequent critical elevation to one of the most significant films of the neo-noir revival.

FRANCIS FORD Coppola

COOLIDGE AWARD 2025

On Monday, April 28, we were proud to present the 2025 Coolidge Award to legendary filmmaker Francis Ford Coppola for his body of work that has helped shape contemporary American cinema.

This May, enjoy a mini retrospective series to further celebrate his legacy.

The Godfather

Saturday, May 3 at 1:00pm

Widely regarded as one of the greatest films of all time, this mob drama, based on Mario Puzo's novel of the same name, focuses on the powerful Italian-American crime family of Don Vito Corleone (Marlon Brando).

When the don's youngest son, Michael (Al Pacino), reluctantly joins the Mafia, he becomes involved in the inevitable cycle of violence and betrayal. Although Michael tries to maintain a normal relationship with his wife, Kay (Diane Keaton), he is drawn deeper into the family business.

Apocalypse Now: Final Cut

Saturday, May 10 at 1:00pm

Transplanting Joseph Conrad's deftly unsettling novella Heart of Darkness into the horrors of the Vietnam War, Francis Ford Coppola's insanity-drenched fever dream is one of the most harrowing examinations of conflict ever put to film.

Going over budget, over schedule, and disrupted by typhoons, heart attacks, seizures, fevers, and nervous breakdowns, Apocalypse Now is infused with a fearless delirium, as the cast and crew ventured deep into their own hearts of darkness, surviving to create a truly unique depiction of war.

Peggy Sue Got Married

Saturday, May 17 at 1:00pm

If you could turn back the hands of time, how would you change destiny?

This is the question facing a divorcing Peggy Sue, when she is suddenly transported from her 25th class reunion back to her senior year in high school. Enabled to alter her future, Peggy Sue dares to stray from the safe path which led to her unhappiness. This time around, she's following her passion, come what may!

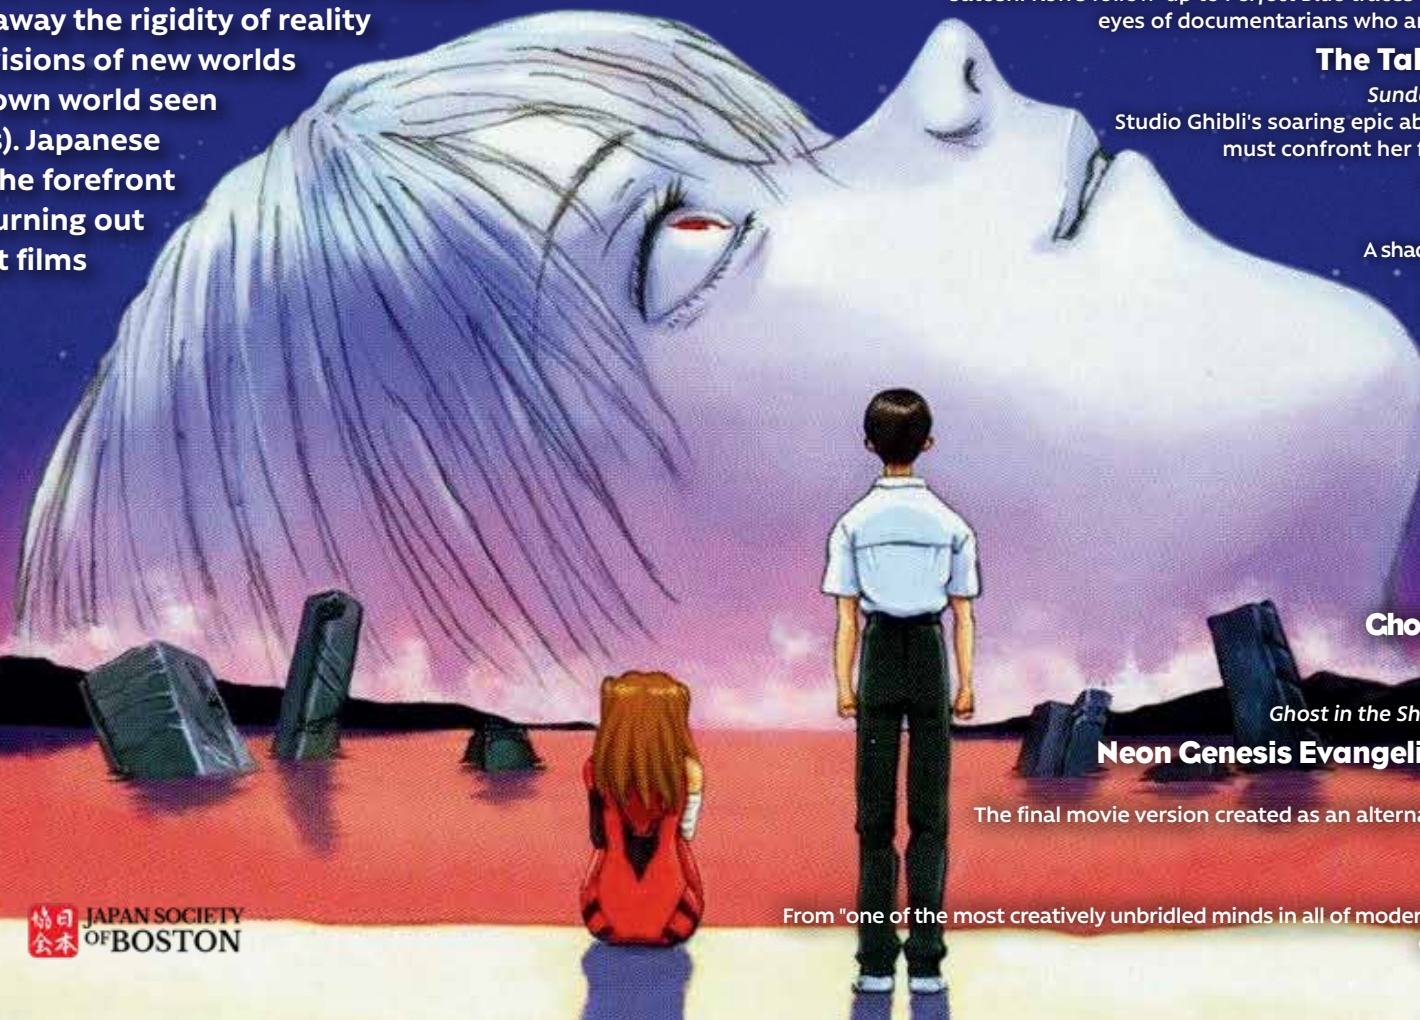

ANIMA

SERIES

Despite its ubiquity, animation is an all-too-often under-appreciated filmmaking medium. By nature, animation strips away the rigidity of reality and conjures up visions of new worlds (or even just our own world seen through new eyes). Japanese anime stands at the forefront of this art form, turning out some of the finest films for decades.

This May, we're excited to bring eight of our favorite anime films to the big screen. Whether you're a seasoned fan or an anime novice, this list of certified classics has you covered.

Millennium Actress

Wednesday, May 7 at 7:00pm

Satoshi Kon's follow-up to Perfect Blue traces the career of an actress through the eyes of documentarians who are literally thrust into her memories.

The Tale of the Princess Kaguya

Sunday, May 11 at 1:30pm | dubbed English

Studio Ghibli's soaring epic about a girl of mysterious origins who must confront her fate as punishment for an old crime.

Vampire Hunter D (1985)

Thursday, May 15 at 9:30pm

A shadowy vampire hunter must help save a human woman from the vampire who wants to claim her, before it's too late.

Weathering with You

Sunday, May 18 at 2:00pm

From the makers of Your Name comes an imaginative tale of a girl who can change the weather.

Belladonna of Sadness

Wednesday, May 21 at 7:00pm

A horror film in spectacular watercolors from the director of Astro Boy.

Ghost in the Shell Double Feature

Sunday, May 25 at 1:00pm

Experience cybernetic masterpieces Ghost in the Shell and Ghost in the Shell: Innocence!

Neon Genesis Evangelion: The End of Evangelion

Tuesday, May 27 at 7:00pm

The final movie version created as an alternate ending to the acclaimed TV show.

Inu-oh

Wednesday, May 28 at 7:00pm

From "one of the most creatively unbridled minds in all of modern animation" comes a revisionist rock opera about a 14th-century superstar.
