Directed by: Steven Spielberg
Featuring: Roy Scheider, Robert Shaw, Richard Dreyfuss

Annual Labor Day screening! 50th anniversary! When a leviathan of a Great White begins making snacks out of the good people of Amity Island, it's up to a police chief, a grizzled fisherman, and a marine biologist to embark on one of the greatest fish stories ever told.

The Sting

Thursday, September 4 at 7:00pm | 1973 | 2h 9m | DCP
Directed by: George Roy Hill
Featuring: Paul Newman, Robert Redford, Robert Shaw

Winner of seven Academy Awards, including Best Picture, this caper about two conmen trying to avenge a mutual friend has become one of America's favorite and most critically acclaimed films.

M*A*S*H^s

Monday, September 22 at 7:00pm | 1970 | 1h 56m | DCP
Directed by: Robert Altman
Featuring: Donald Sutherland, Elliott Gould, Tom Skerritt, Sally Kellerman

As one of the world's most acclaimed comedies, M*A*S*H focuses on three Korean War Army surgeons who adopt a hilarious, lunatic lifestyle as an antidote to the tragedies of their Mobile Army Surgical Hospital.

M

Monday, September 29 at 7:00pm | 1931 | 1h 39m | DCP
In German & French with English subtitles
Directed by: Fritz Lang
Featuring: Peter Lorre, Ellen Widmann, Inge Landgut

In his harrowing masterwork M, Fritz Lang merges trenchant social commentary with chilling suspense, creating a panorama of private madness and public hysteria that to this day remains the blueprint for the psychological thriller.

Rope^s

Thursday, October 2 at 7:00pm | 1948 | 1h 20m | DCP
Directed by: Alfred Hitchcock
Featuring: James Stewart, John Dall, Farley Granger

Filmed in only nine takes almost entirely on a single sound stage, the first color film from the Master of Suspense is a chilling look into the dark side of humanity.

The Spirit of the Beehive

Monday, October 6 at 7:00pm | 1973 | 1h 38m | 35mm
In Spanish with English subtitles
Directed by: Víctor Erice
Featuring: Fernando Fernán Gómez, Teresa Gimpera

Produced as Franco's long regime was nearing its end, this film is a bewitching portrait of a child's haunted inner life and one of the most visually arresting movies ever made.

Peeping Tom

Thursday, October 16 at 7:00pm | 1960 | 1h 41m | DCP
Directed by: Michael Powell
Featuring: Carl Boehm, Anna Massey, Moira Shearer

After bringing British cinema into exalted realms of fantasy and imagination, Michael Powell took a dark detour into obsession, voyeurism, and violence with this groundbreaking metacinematic investigation into the mechanics of fear.

The Devil's Backbone

Thursday, October 23 at 7:00pm | 2001 | 1h 46m | DCP
In Spanish with English subtitles
Directed by: Guillermo del Toro
Featuring: Marisa Paredes, Eduardo Noriega, Federico Luppi

In one of the director's most personal films, this emotionally layered horror-drama follows a twelve-year-old boy who is sent to a haunted rural orphanage full of terrible secrets.

Ed Wood^s

Monday, October 27 at 7:00pm | 1994 | 2h 7m | DCP
Directed by: Tim Burton
Featuring: Johnny Depp, Martin Landau, Sarah Jessica Parker

The hilarious and surprisingly touching real-life story of perhaps the most unique filmmaker in Hollywood history.

The Turnaway Play

Tuesday, September 16 at 7:00pm | 1h 40m

All proceeds from this live staged reading and post-reading panel discussion will benefit The Turnaway Project and Reproductive Equity Now!

The Turnaway Play is inspired by a revelatory 10-year scientific research project—led by MacArthur fellow Dr. Diana Greene Foster—that definitively answers the essential question, "What happens to a person who wants an abortion but cannot get one?"

Featuring real-life stories of women who were denied abortions, this compelling play blends humor and honesty to reduce stigma and open dialogue.

Invincible Czars: Phantom of the Opera 100th Anniversary

Monday, October 13 at 7:00pm | 1925 | 1h 33m | DCP

Directed by: Rupert Julian

Featuring: Lon Chaney, Mary Philbin, Norman Kerry

The Invincible Czars bring their signature blend of eclectic instrumentation, adventurous arrangements, and sense of emotional depth to this 100-year-old classic with their new soundtrack, performing it live on our stage.

Blue Velvet

Thursday, September 18 at 9:30pm | 1986 | 2h | DCP
Directed by: David Lynch
Featuring: Kyle MacLachlan, Isabella Rossellini, Dennis Hopper, Laura Dern

In this deeply disturbing mixture of the heartfelt and horrific, a clean-cut young man realizes his Mayberry-like hometown is not so normal when he is thrown into an alluring, erotic murder mystery.

Magic Mike XXL

Thursday, September 25 at 9:45pm | 2015 | 1h 55m | DCP
Directed by: Gregory Jacobs
Featuring: Channing Tatum, Joe Manganiello, Matt Bomer

Picking up the story three years after Mike bowed out of the stripper life at the top of his game, Magic Mike XXL finds the remaining Kings of Tampa likewise ready to throw in the towel, but only after one last blow-out performance.

Ernest Scared Stupid

Thursday, October 16 at 9:45pm | 1991 | 1h 31m | 35mm
Directed by: John R. Cherry III
Featuring: Jim Varney, Eartha Kitt, Austin Nagler

When Ernest looks to help some children with their Halloween haunted house, he ends up accidentally unleashing an evil troll that intends to bring about the end of the world. This will be one Halloween that Ernest and his pals will never forget!

Child's Play 2

Thursday, October 23 at 9:30pm | 1990 | 1h 24m | DCP
Directed by: John Lafia

CLASSES

Art House of Horror

Tuesdays, September 30–October 28 at 6:15–9:15pm

Instructor: Kay Lynch, film historian and programmer

Art house horror is more of a vibe than a subgenre, a collection of unsettling attributes. Pretentious at worst, transcendent at best, these films reveal something undeniable about the human condition: it can be Hell.

In this five-week course (running in tandem with our Art House of Horror series; see more on p20), we will dissect films both legendary and obscure, explore the political, cultural, and historical context of their creation, and encounter the disturbed geniuses who made them.

Scorsese: New Hollywood & Beyond

Wednesdays, October 1–29 at 10:30am–1:30pm

Instructor: Andre Puca, Emerson College Film and Media Studies Professor

As both cinephile and movie brat, Martin Scorsese helped reinvent the studio system of old. Among a new crop of film-school educated talent entering the industry in the 1970s, Scorsese both embraced and innovated Hollywood convention, securing his place in history as one of the greatest filmmakers of all time.

Join us for a five-week class on this esteemed and iconoclastic director.

SEMINARS

Instructor: Andy Miara, comedy writer, director, producer, and teacher

*Laughing through the madness: a guide to Robert Altman's M*A*S*H!*

In this 30-minute pre-screening seminar, we'll explore Robert Altman's breakthrough comedy film as both a biting anti-war satire, and a surprisingly joyful celebration of life, rebellion, and human connection.

Rope

Thursday, October 2 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Kyle Stevens, Associate Professor of Film Studies at Appalachian State University

Rope is arguably Hitchcock's most explicitly experimental and queerest film.

Join us at this introductory seminar to learn all about his artistic aspirations and the history of queer characters in Hitchcock's films!

Ed Wood

Monday, October 27 at 6:15pm

Instructor: Ingrid Stobbe, visual media artist and Associate Professor of Digital Filmmaking at Lesley University's College of Art + Design

Using all at his disposal in low budget passion projects, alongside a vital and eclectic group of friends and artists, the character and real life Ed Wood is a persona worth revisiting in this age of large franchises and rapid consumerism.

They're the films that baffle your friends, the ones that make you feel like you're already on drugs, that frighten you far more than any jump-scare can, slithering under your skin like a barrel full of worms...

Art house horror is more of a vibe than a subgenre, a collection of unsettling attributes. Pretentious at worst, transcendent at best, these films reveal something undeniable about the human condition: it can be Hell.

Experience ten of the genre's masterworks on our big screen this October. Programmed in collaboration with film historian Kay Lynch.

ART HOUSE Series & Class OF HORROR

October 2025

In tandem with this series, we're hosting a five-week class that coincides with every Tuesday night screening!

In the class, we will dissect films both legendary and obscure, explore the political, cultural, and historical context of their creation, and encounter the disturbed geniuses who made them. Screenings include: Hour of the Wolf, Carnival of Souls, Possession, Under the Skin, and The Substance.

Sponsored by MUBI

The Hour of the Wolf

Tuesday, September 30 at 7:00pm

In Ingmar Bergman's most harrowing tale, an artist (Max von Sydow) has an emotional breakdown after confronting his repressed desires while vacationing on a remote island with his younger pregnant wife (Liv Ullmann).

Carnival of Souls

Tuesday, October 7 at 7:00pm

After a traumatic accident, a woman becomes drawn to a mysterious abandoned carnival, set to a ghoulish organ score.

Repulsion

Wednesday, October 8 at 7:00pm

A withdrawn manicurist who disapproves of her sister's boyfriend sinks into depression and experiences horrific visions of violence.

Diabolique

Sunday, October 12 at 2:00pm

The wife and mistress of a loathed school principal plan to murder him with what they believe is the perfect alibi.

Possession

Tuesday, October 14 at 7:00pm

A woman (Isabelle Adjani) becomes increasingly disturbed after asking her husband (Sam Neill) for a divorce.

Kwaidan

Wednesday, October 15 at 7:00pm
